Martin Luther
1483-1546

Commenting on the Bible, said...

“No clearer Book has been written in this wide world than the Holy Scriptures. Compared with all other books it is like the sun over all other lights...”

Martin Luther's 3 basic teachings:

Salvation (entrance into heaven) can be achieved through faith alone.

- He rejected church doctrine that good works and sacraments are necessary for salvation.

The Bible is the sole source of religious truth not the traditional authorities such as Church clergy or the Pope.

All persons with faith are equal. They do not need priests to interpret the Bible for them.
