1. Items of joint business with St Matthew's PCC

a) Revised PCC meetings schedule

A revised PCC meetings schedule was proposed by Jonathan Mobey at the June Combined PCC meeting, to be adopted starting in September 2018. Since the June meeting, Jonathan Mobey has emailed All Saints' PCC members about this, and has also spoken to the All Saints' Treasurer, Stuart Gibson. Stuart was happy and Jonathan received no objections from PCC members.

The conclusion is therefore that the revised schedule will be implemented as per Paper A, as of September.

Action: Jane Woolley to liaise with Jonathan Mobey to prepare and circulate confirmation of the revised list of PCC meeting dates and locations to all PCC members

b) Proposal for a new member to join the clergy team

Paper B refers.

Jonathan Mobey gave an overview of the comments and questions he had received from PCC members on this matter. These together with Jonathan's answers, and the ensuing discussion, are summarised in an accompanying confidential minute, for PCC members' eyes only.

Bishop Colin had indicated to Jonathan Mobey earlier on the day of the meeting that progress on this matter is slow at the moment, and so there is now no imminent prospect of a new member joining the clergy team.

In view of the sensitive nature of the matter, it was agreed to delegate any further discussion and decision-making required in due course to Jonathan Mobey and the four churchwardens.

c) Participation in research project

Papers C & D refer.

After some discussion, the matter was put to a vote. All but one of those present were in favour of our churches participating.
